Drama in Oakhaven

It was a warm, sunny day in Oakhaven. The prince was playing with his dog in the forest. They were playing fetch. They went to the river for some fresh water. The prince lost his balance and fell in. The current dragged him down. He screamed and the dog barked.

A princess was riding by and heard the noise. She saw the prince in the river. She got off her horse and jumped into the river. She grabbed the prince's arm and saved him. She took the wet prince back to the castle. The king thanked the princess.

Question 1: How did the princess save the prince?

My Name: _____

Question 2: Do you think the princess was brave or foolish for saving the prince?
