

BrightFish Writing Activity

Comprehension questions for "A Place to Hang"

Score: /8

Read the story "A Place to Hang" and answer the two questions in the space below. Remember to use capitals, correct spelling and punctuation!

A Place to Hang

The sun was setting. It was time for Mitch and the other bats to go out for the night. They usually went to the overhang at the cove. It was a great place to hang with the other bats. It was always filled with bugs! The bats flew to the cove. There was a flock of birds at their spot. The bats had to think fast.

"Hey, Birds. You better hurry or you will miss it," said Mitch. "Miss what?" asked the birds. "The fish feast! The word on the beach is that there is a fish feast at the Sandbar." The birds quickly flew away. The bats hung out at the cove for the rest of the night ... bird-free.

Question 1: Why did Mitch tell the birds there was a fish feast?

My Name: _____

Question 2: Do you think the birds came back to the cove? Support your answer with details from the text.

